

FORAGE & PASTURE MANAGEMENT COURSE

PROTEIN RUMINANT WEEDS RENOVATION MINERALS SHEEP GRAZING
FORAGES
MIG NEW FORAGES CATTLE TDN
HAY PASTURES
FERTILIZER GOATS
SILAGE

A practical course on forages, grazing, pasture, soils, hay, and silage! We'll cover topics such as:

- ◆ How to set up a grazing system
- ◆ How to identify & manage common & new forages
- ◆ How to sample soils and use the soil test numbers
- ◆ Which forages are best for different purposes
- ◆ How to gauge the nutritional value of forages
- ◆ Renovating pastures: what to do first, second, third
- ◆ Which fertilizers to use and when to apply them
- ◆ How to increase forage growth & animal production

SPONSORS: • Friends of Family Farmers

- DLF Pickseed • Grassland Oregon
- Ioka Marketing • Saddle Butte Ag Inc.

Registration Form

Name

Street/Ranch Address

City

State

Zip

Phone

Email

7-Week Course

Wednesday Evenings in Salem

Classes Begin Oct. 18, 2017

6:00–9:00 pm at the Pringle Hall
Community Center, Salem

$145 - cost for 7-week course

$95 for additional family members

Special for members of the Oregon Pasture Network: Friends of Family Farmers will give you a rebate of 50% of the registration cost!

Advanced Registration Only!
Online Registration Available!

www.woodylane.com/forages-course

Instructor: Woody Lane

Livestock nutritionist & forage specialist, Roseburg • Teaches popular forage and nutrition workshops around the U.S. • Ph.D. in livestock nutrition, Cornell University • President, Oregon Forage & Grassland Council • Consulting in Oregon since 1990

For More Information:

www.woodylane.com
for online registration
541-556-0054 (cell)
541-440-1926 (office)
woody@woodylane.com

Online:

Send in your registration in advance! Space is limited!

Detailed information will be sent to you upon registration.

Make check payable to:

Dr. Woody Lane

Mail to:

Lane Livestock Services
240 Crystal Springs Lane
Roseburg, OR 97471

